Chairman's Desk

Greetings and Happy new year, lady golfers from your Chairman, Mary Wambugu. Just to let you know that KLGU Executive council has settled down very well ready to serve you. This is a release from your Chairman, to update you on what is happening at Council and KLGU upcoming events and hopefully we can do this frequently. I appeal to all of you Ladies to support KLGU Events. Lady Captains please remind your members of coming KLGU events during your medals and other club events. This is your Union. Its success is the pride of all lady golfers!!

Dress Code

Are you aware of this golf rule!
If your ball is in a Bunker or a water hazard, don't touch the ground or water in the hazard with your hands or club before your downswing, or move loose impediments
Rule 13-4.
Dress code
No tight and revealing wear. Top must have either sleeves or collar. Do not reveal cleavages, remember we have men caddies!!
Golf is a game of decency and respect for each other including men caddies. Starters, Captains and members of KLGU Council are mandated to send a lady to dress properly if they deem the lady to be improperly dressed. Let us all dress appropriately for every round of golf.

News

KLGU EGM held on 17/1/15

The following were elected by an overwhelming majority of 83% of registered voters to represent KLGU at the Kenya Golf Federation (KGF)
Florence Macharia, Eunice Mpenda and Annastasia Chubi. I wish them all the best.

Just concluded Events

KLGU VS LCS was a huge success. A record 36 ladies participated. In the past 5 Years, the largest entry has been 12 ladies. I thank KLGU Convenor, Terry Obath and her team. A special mention of LC Muthaiga, Jane Babasa Nzibo who mobilised Past and sitting Lcs to participate in the Event in a big way. KLGU took the day against Lady Captains. A big up to all those who took part.
Eileen Belcher was held at Royal Nairobi Club on 28th February and 1st March 2015. These were 2 days of intense but fun competition. The Spirit of true comradeship reigned throughout, ladies made friends with golfers from the whole of Kenya. To say that this event was a huge success would be an understatement. It was the best that has been seen for the last several years, perhaps the best of all times. Our Sponsor Kenya Orient was impressed.
Division A was won by Green team who lifted The Eileen Belcher Trophy. The Sinclair Quiach, which is competed for by B Division was won by Red Team while C Division went to Green Team who went home with the Palmer Trophy
Our thanks to KLGU Main Convenor, June Waweru, Christina Anderson (convenor A Division), Terry Obath (Division B convenor) and Lucy Muhinga (convenor Division C) and to ALL the captains who so ably captained the various teams
Our heartfelt appreciation to our Sponsor Kenya Orient Insurance Limited.

Div A Winner - Green team

Div B Winner - Red Team

Div C Winner - Green team

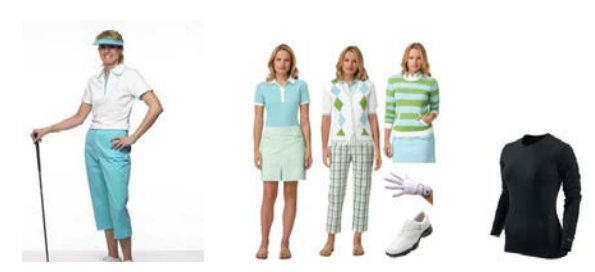

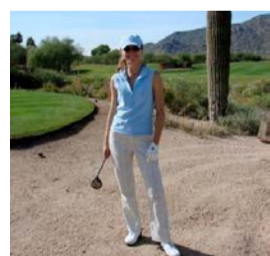

KLGU CHAIRMAN PRESENTS GIFT TO GABRIEL OF KOIL AT EILEEN BELCHER 2015

KLGU Recommended Dress Code 2014

Golf Shirts with collars or sleeves, buttons, turtle, crew or V neck. If no collar then sleeves. Nothing form fitting and must cover the midriff. Golf shirts must be worn inside the waist unless tailored to be worn outside.
Slacks, Capri pants, shorts, skirts with pockets sewn closely to garment, and not close fitting.
Shorts/skirts must be of conservative length – 2/3rds of thigh must be covered.

If the clothing brand is a recognised golfing company it is acceptable to wear on the course, subject to the conditions above but the culture of the country must be born in mind.

Joke of the month...

"No, playing golf isn't a sin. However, lying about your score, swearing, playing for money, wishing the other players will play bad, and not returning that 7-iron you found is."

Your chairman Mary Wambugu, and the entire Executive Council wish all of you fellow lady golfers a truly fruitful year 2015. Please support your Union in its 2015 activities.
